

Time:       0830—1230       Duration:       4 hours       Number:       15 - 25 participants         Accredited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD       Prerequisite:       none         Who can enrol:       Health professionals working in secondary care, primary care and NGO health sectors.         Course information:       This course has been created as an introduction to building cultural competence when working with CALD migr         and refugee patients from Asian,       Middle Eastern and African backgrounds and with Interpreters.       It is a combination of the following         courses from the CALD Cultural Competency Training Programme:       CALD 1 Culture and Cultural Competency.       CALD 4 Working with Interpreters         Audience:       It is intended for anyone working in secondary care, primary care or NGO sector.       The aim of the course is to increase your awareness of your own cultural values and of others; to improve your understanding of he cross cultural differences, expectations and beliefs about illness and disability can affect communication, consultation and diagnosis; au to improve your skills working with Interpreters and CALD patients.         Learning Outcomes: <ul> <li>Gain skills on how to apply the four elements of cultural competency (awareness, knowledge, sensitivity and skills) in practice to dev cultural competency.</li> <li>Gain skills on how to work with effectively with Interpreters; including pre-briefing, structuring a session and de-briefing.</li> <li>On completing this course you will develop skills in cultural competency, and become aware of how assumptions, interpretations an judgements</li></ul>		SION: Cultural Competency and Working with I
Who can enrol: Health professionals working in secondary care, primary care and NGO health sectors.         Course information: This course has been created as an introduction to building cultural competence when working with CALD migra and refuge patients from Asian, Middle Eastern and African backgrounds and with Interpreters. It is a combination of the following courses from the CALD Cultural Competency Training Programme: CALD 1 Culture and Cultural Competency. CALD 4 Working with Interpreters         Audience: It is intended for anyone working in secondary care, primary care or NGO sector.         The aim of the course is to increase your awareness of your own cultural values and of others; to improve your understanding of hoc cross cultural differences, expectations and beliefs about illness and disability can affect communication, consultation and diagnosis; at to improve your skills working with interpreters and CALD patients.         Learning Outcomes:         • Gain skills on how to apply the four elements of cultural competency (awareness, knowledge, sensitivity and skills) in practice to dev cultural competency.         • Gain skills on how to work with effectively with Interpreters; including pre-briefing, structuring a session and de-briefing.         On completing this course you will develop skills in cultural competency, and become aware of how assumptions, interpretations and judgements impact on how we communicate and understand our CALD patients/clients during consultations.         PM SESSION: Working in Culturally Diverse Teams         Time: 01300—1700       Duration: 4 hours       Number: 15—25 participants         Accredited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD       Prerequisite: must		D830—1230 Duration: 4 hours
Course information: This course has been created as an introduction to building cultural competence when working with CALD migr.         and refugee patients from Asian, Middle Eastern and African backgrounds and with Interpreters. It is a combination of the following courses from the CALD Cultural Competency Training Programme: CALD 1 Culture and Cultural Competency. CALD 4 Working with Interpreters         Audience: It is intended for anyone working in secondary care, primary care or NGO sector.         The aim of the course is to increase your awareness of your own cultural values and of others; to improve your understanding of hoc cross cultural differences, expectations and beliefs about illness and disability can affect communication, consultation and diagnosis; and to improve your skills working with interpreters and CALD patients.         Learning Outcomes: <ul> <li>Gain skills on how to apply the four elements of cultural competency, and become aware of how assumptions, interpretations and judgements impact on how to work with effectively with Interpreters; including pre-briefing, structuring a session and de-briefing.</li> <li>On completing this course you will develop skills in cultural competency, and become aware of how assumptions, interpretations and judgements impact on how we communicate and understand our CALD patients/clients during consultations.</li> </ul> PM SESSION: Working in Culturally Diverse Teams         Time: 01300–1700       Duration: 4 hours       Number: 15–25 participants         Accredited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD       Prerequisite: must complete Cultural Competency and Work with Interpreter         Who can enrol: Health professionals working in secondary c		ited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD Prerequi and refugee patients from Asian, Middle Eastern and African backgrounds and with Interpreters. It is a combination of the following courses from the CALD Cultural Competency Training Programme: CALD 1 Culture and Cultural Competency CALD 4 Working with Interpreters Audience: It is intended for anyone working in secondary care, primary care or NGO sector. The aim of the course is to increase your awareness of your own cultural values and of others; to improve your understanding of hoc cross cultural differences, expectations and beliefs about illness and disability can affect communication, consultation and diagnosis; at to improve your skills working with interpreters and CALD patients. Learning Outcomes: Gain skills on how to apply the four elements of cultural competency (awareness, knowledge, sensitivity and skills) in practice to dev cultural competency. Gain skills on how to work with effectively with Interpreters; including pre-briefing, structuring a session and de-briefing. On completing this course you will develop skills in cultural competency, and become aware of how assumptions, interpretations and judgements impact on how we communicate and understand our CALD patients/clients during consultations. PM SESSION: Working in Culturally Diverse Teams Time: 01300—1700 Duration: 4 hours Number: 15—25 participants Accredited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD Prerequisite: must complete Cultural Competency and Work with Interpreter Who can enrol: Health professionals working in secondary care, primary care and NGO health sectors.	ectors.	n enrol: Health professionals working in second
The aim of the course is to increase your awareness of your own cultural values and of others; to improve your understanding of hoc cross cultural differences, expectations and beliefs about illness and disability can affect communication, consultation and diagnosis; at to improve your skills working with interpreters and CALD patients.         Learning Outcomes:       • Gain skills on how to apply the four elements of cultural competency (awareness, knowledge, sensitivity and skills) in practice to dev cultural competency.         • Gain skills on how to work with effectively with Interpreters; including pre-briefing, structuring a session and de-briefing.         On completing this course you will develop skills in cultural competency, and become aware of how assumptions, interpretations at judgements impact on how we communicate and understand our CALD patients/clients during consultations.         PM SESSION: Working in Culturally Diverse Teams         Time: 01300-1700       Duration: 4 hours       Number: 15-25 participants         Accredited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD       Prerequisite: must complete Cultural Competency and Work with Interpreter         Who can enrol: Health professionals working in secondary care, primary care and NGO health sectors.         Course information: The workplace has become more and more multi-cultural. Understanding and appreciating diversity are becoming	nbination of the following	ugee patients from Asian, Middle Eastern and African cross cultural differences, expectations and beliefs about illness and disability can affect communication, consultation and diagnosis; and to improve your skills working with interpreters and CALD patients. Learning Outcomes:  Gain skills on how to apply the four elements of cultural competency (awareness, knowledge, sensitivity and skills) in practice to dev cultural competency. Gain skills on how to work with effectively with Interpreters; including pre-briefing, structuring a session and de-briefing. On completing this course you will develop skills in cultural competency, and become aware of how assumptions, interpretations are judgements impact on how we communicate and understand our CALD patients/clients during consultations. PM SESSION: Working in Culturally Diverse Teams Time: 01300—1700 Duration: 4 hours Number: 15—25 participants Accredited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD Prerequisite: must complete Cultural Competency and Work with Interpreter Who can enrol: Health professionals working in secondary care, primary care and NGO health sectors.		ce: It is intended for anyone working in secondary ca
<ul> <li>Gain skills on how to apply the four elements of cultural competency (awareness, knowledge, sensitivity and skills) in practice to dev cultural competency.</li> <li>Gain skills on how to work with effectively with Interpreters; including pre-briefing, structuring a session and de-briefing.</li> <li>On completing this course you will develop skills in cultural competency, and become aware of how assumptions, interpretations are judgements impact on how we communicate and understand our CALD patients/clients during consultations.</li> <li>PM SESSION: Working in Culturally Diverse Teams</li> <li>Time: 01300—1700 Duration: 4 hours Number: 15—25 participants</li> <li>Accredited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD Prerequisite: must complete Cultural Competency and Work with Interpreter</li> <li>Who can enrol: Health professionals working in secondary care, primary care and NGO health sectors.</li> <li>Course information: The workplace has become more and more multi-cultural. Understanding and appreciating diversity are becoming</li> </ul>		ultural differences, expectations and beliefs about illne cultural competency.         • Gain skills on how to work with effectively with Interpreters; including pre-briefing, structuring a session and de-briefing.         On completing this course you will develop skills in cultural competency, and become aware of how assumptions, interpretations are judgements impact on how we communicate and understand our CALD patients/clients during consultations.         PM SESSION: Working in Culturally Diverse Teams         Time:       01300—1700         Duration:       4 hours         Number:       15—25 participants         Accredited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD       Prerequisite: must complete Cultural Competency and Work with Interpreter         Who can enrol:       Health professionals working in secondary care, primary care and NGO health sectors.         Course information:       The workplace has become more and more multi-cultural.       Understanding and appreciating diversity are becoming		ng Outcomes:
On completing this course you will develop skills in cultural competency, and become aware of how assumptions, interpretations are judgements impact on how we communicate and understand our CALD patients/clients during consultations. PM SESSION: Working in Culturally Diverse Teams Time: 01300—1700 Duration: 4 hours Number: 15—25 participants Accredited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD Prerequisite: must complete Cultural Competency and Work with Interpreter Who can enrol: Health professionals working in secondary care, primary care and NGO health sectors. Course information: The workplace has become more and more multi-cultural. Understanding and appreciating diversity are becomi	nd skills) in practice to develop judgements impact on how we communicate and understand our CALD patients/clients during consultations.         PM SESSION: Working in Culturally Diverse Teams         Time:       01300—1700         Duration:       4 hours         Number:       15—25 participants         Accredited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD       Prerequisite: must complete Cultural Competency and Work with Interpreter         Who can enrol:       Health professionals working in secondary care, primary care and NGO health sectors.         Course information:       The workplace has become more and more multi-cultural.       Understanding and appreciating diversity are becoming	ind de-briefing.	skills on how to work with effectively with Interpreters
Time:       01300—1700       Duration:       4 hours       Number:       15—25 participants         Accredited for       CME / CNE / MOP / CPD       Prerequisite:       must complete       Cultural Competency and Work with Interpreter         Who       can enrol:       Health       professionals       working in secondary care, primary care and NGO health sectors.         Course information:       The workplace has become more and more multi-cultural.       Understanding and appreciating diversity are becoming Accredited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD Prerequisite: must complete Cultural Competency and Work with Interpreter Who can enrol: Health professionals working in secondary care, primary care and NGO health sectors. Course information: The workplace has become more and more multi-cultural. Understanding and appreciating diversity are becomi		SION: Working in Culturally Diverse Teams
Who can enrol: Health professionals working in secondary care, primary care and NGO health sectors. Course information: The workplace has become more and more multi-cultural. Understanding and appreciating diversity are becomi
Course information: The workplace has become more and more multi-cultural. Understanding and appreciating diversity are becomi		D1300—1700 Duration: 4 hours
	d Work with Interpreter
essential elements for staff to work effectively in culturally diverse teams.	-	ited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD Prerequisite:
Audience: It is intended for anyone working in secondary care, primary care of NGO health-sector.	ectors.	ited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD Prerequisite: In enrol: Health professionals working in second information: The workplace has become more and m
The aim of this course is to gain a better understanding of the challenges people face when working in a culturally diverse team and how to minimise or resolve these challenges.	ectors.	ited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD Prerequisite: In enrol: Health professionals working in second information: The workplace has become more and m al elements for staff to work effectively in culturally div
Learning Outcomes:	ectors.	ited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD Prerequisite: in enrol: Health professionals working in second information: The workplace has become more and m al elements for staff to work effectively in culturally div ce: It is intended for anyone working in secondary ca m of this course is to gain a better understanding of th
Understanding the value dimensions that cause barriers to effective cross cultural interaction.	ectors.	ited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD Prerequisite: in enrol: Health professionals working in second information: The workplace has become more and m al elements for staff to work effectively in culturally div ce: It is intended for anyone working in secondary can m of this course is to gain a better understanding of th minimise or resolve these challenges.
<ul> <li>Identify strategies that enable effective working relationships in a diverse team.</li> </ul>	ectors.	ited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD Prerequisite: in enrol: Health professionals working in second information: The workplace has become more and m al elements for staff to work effectively in culturally div ce: It is intended for anyone working in secondary can m of this course is to gain a better understanding of th minimise or resolve these challenges. mg Outcomes:
• Develop skills on building trust.	ectors.	ited for CME / CNE / MOP / CPD Prerequisite: in enrol: Health professionals working in second information: The workplace has become more and m al elements for staff to work effectively in culturally div ce: It is intended for anyone working in secondary can m of this course is to gain a better understanding of th minimise or resolve these challenges. ng Outcomes: Understanding the value dimensions that cause barrie

• Gain skills in cultural mindfulness.

On completing this course you will have a greater insight on how to explore the differences of cultures to understand how people communicate and behave in ways they do; be able to identify and develop strategies that enable you to work effectively with colleagues in a culturally diverse team.

HOW TO REGISTER:

Email: faye.blossom@waikatodhb.health.nz

RSVP by Thursday, 29 April 2021

Details required: Course Name, Course Date, Your Name, Designation and Area, Cellphone, Email

CALD Cultural Competency Courses CALD refers to culturally and linguistically diverse groups who are migrants and refugees from Asian, Middle Eastern, Latin American and African (MELAA) backgrounds.